Part VI – Line 76:

NYSOMA started a Scholarship program during this program year.

The NYSOMA Scholarship Program is open to high school seniors or first year post-secondary school enrollees from all over the state of New York. Applicants must have participated in the Odyssey of the Mind Program. The Scholarship program's objective is to encourage continued participation in the program by students going on to college. Applications are available through the State Director and advertised thru the organization's web site, thru communications to Regional Directors, and at the organization's events. The application includes: the student's involvement in the Odyssey of the Mind Program, involvement in other activities including part-time jobs, letters of recommendation from their school and from their Odyssey of their Mind coach, and their response to a question related to Odyssey of the Mind. These applications are reviewed by a committee of individuals involved in NYSOMA. Application guidelines prevent children of the Board and Officers from applying for a scholarship. The committee members individually give each applicant a weighted ranking based on the information provided on the application. Scores are added and the applicant(s) with the highest ranking score are presented to the NYSOMA Board for approval of the Scholarship Awards. Records are kept of all the applications received, the ranking they received and the awards that are given.
